DRAMATIC ESTERTAINMENT POR A CHARITABLE Purross — The Thalia, an amateur dramatic society, gave a performance of The Lady of Lyone in German last evening, at Arbiter Hall, for the benefit of the destitute European emi-grants who arrive in this city, and notted the sum of $150 for that purpose.

Parry Larceny. — A young girl named Emma Moore, quite fair and very freil, was arrested by Officers West and Conger last right and committed to the Ninth-street Station-house on a charge of petty larceny. She met a young man on Fifth-street who was She met a young man on Fitth street who was induced by the qualities we have named to accompany her to a house of ill-repute, where she robbed him of six dollars. He informed the officers of the fact, and when they arrested her the money was found upon her person. She will have a hearing this morning before Judge Lowe.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE IN A STATION-HOUSE,-A men named David Coats, arrested night before at for draukenness and disorderly conduct, and placed in the Hammond-street Station-house, attempted to hang hamself in one of the cells by fastening his handkerchie;

The noise he made waits shoking attracted the attention of the keepen, who released him from his perilous position, but not before the norm his perious position, but not before the unfortunate man was purple in the face, and nearly on the shores of the Stygian stream. An hour and abundance of cold water restored the prisoner, and reconciled him, as the Werthesians would say, to health, in pain a little longer, the heavy atmosphere of this tellmal pianet.

POLICE COURT.—Eighteen cases were examined at the Police Court yesterday morning, before Judge Lowe. Most of them were quite uninteresting, and but one or two seemed to be of sufficient importance to authorize a re-

A German woman named Barbara Ketch was arraigned on a charge of grand larceny. It appeared that an acquaintance named Valentine Bush visited her at her residence at the head of Blm-street, day bafora yesterday, and before his departure she managed to relieve him of a watch worth about $6 or $8, and money to the amount of $38. He caused her to be taken into custody, and, being desimed guilty of the charge, was committed deemed guilty of the charge, was committed to Jail to answer the charge at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas, in default of hall to the amount of $350.

A fellow named O'Donnell was picked up night before last by some of the police in a half-lasbriated condition, and fleurishing a very heavy slung-shot. They carried him to the station-house, and yesterday morning pre ferred a charge against him of carrying con-scaled weapons, and Judge Lowe punished the offense by fining him $10 and costs.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCRET AT ASSURT CHAPPI The concert of the pupils of the Sanday Scho ! connected with Asbury Chapel, on Webster street, near Main, was largely attended last night, and passed off apparently to the entire entisfaction of all the parties concerned. The music, compared with that which is usually heard at places of this kind, was excellent, and gave avidence of considerable cultivation. We should do injustice to some should we attempt to particularize, and where all was good this is unnecessary. THE LATE NINTH-ST. SHOOTING APPRAY—ACQUITTAL OF CORR.—On Monday last we gave an account of a shooting affray that occurred on Saturday evening in a brothel on Ninth-street, near Baymiller, in which a young man-named Eugene Tratebus was seriously injured, by a shot from a pistol in the hands of Pollock Wilson Cobb. The affair came up yesterday in the Police Court, and was carefully ex-mined in all its bearings before Judge

The entire occurrence, as detailed by the witnesses, was similar to the statement we witnesses, was similar to the statement we gave of it, and but one or two new points were licited. It appears that Cobb had taken the woman about whom the difficulty originated out sleigh-riding, and this so incessed Tratebas that he assaulted his rival and knocked his down. Cobb made an effort to escape through the back door, but it was socked, and on turning, saw his assailant approaching him with a large boule-safe or dagger in his hand, when he drew a pistol and shot him.

It was also in evidence that T. had ininformed a friend of his, before he entered

The wounded man is still, we understand, tring in a critical condition. The ball, which entered at the temple, seems to have passed through the skull and lodged in such a position that his physiciaus have thus far been unable to remove it. What will be the result of this unfortunate affair it is difficult to determine, but for the sake of at least one of the marticipants, we could wish it might not prove fait. endant

READ HOME TESTIMONY: CINCINNATI, February 16, 1859. CHROHMATI, February 16, 1859.

We have used one of "Grover & Baker's" Sewing Machines in our family for mearly two years. We have done at kinds of swing upon it that is required to be done in a large family, and it has worked to our entire satisfaction in every respect. It has never been out of repair, though in almost daily use. The sam is as strong and durable as any cloth can be made. There is no dufficulty about the tension of the libraria—the finest and the consecut work equally well. We have given it a most thorough trial, and we considily recommend it to all as is machine which has no superior. (Signed.) REV. CHAUNCEY GILES.

MESSES. GROVER & BAKER—Gentlemen: It is nearly three years since my family had one of your excellent newing flackings in use. During that time have had an opportunity of seding several oney kinds and though they possess many good qualities, yet for family use, my wife and daughters prefer your machine to any others in the city. Believe me to remain gentlemen. Yours respectfully.
